without exception, to all buildings whether they be public institutions or ~~private~~ ordinary dwelling houses ~~as~~ has been further directed that any charitable institution applying for a free water supply should do so through the department of Govt from which it draws a grant-in-aid, and that in case Govt see fit to grant the prayer, the initial cost of water connection and excess charges may be sanctioned as a supplemental grant to the department concerned or as a contribution to the particular institution. All concessions for free watersupply granted till now have also been ordered to be ~~stopped~~ withdrawn from 1st Jany 1913.

Applications ~~have been~~ are therefore being received from the persons interested in such institutions, praying for the free supply of water to the respective institutions. Two applications* already received (in this connection) have been worked up & submitted to the H. Secy. This application may perhaps be
